

2012 Trip to the Havana International Ballet Festival

Sunday, October 28 – Sunday, November 4

Join CAF and other members of the arts community for a memorable trip to Havana. Rediscover the jewel of the Caribbean during the famed Havana International Ballet Festival. In addition to the highlights described below, our group will have behind-the-scenes access to dancers from the New York City Ballet who will travel as part of an all-star cast with Tom Gold Dance performing Balanchine and Twila Tharp at the festival.

Over trip benefits include:

- Accommodations at the 4 star Parque Central Hotel
- Attendance to several ballet performances at El Gran Teatro, Teatro Mella, Teatro Nacional and others
- Private visits to artists' studios
- Guided tours of historical landmarks throughout Havana
- Visits to Havana's finest art intuitions
- Dining at several of the top paladares in Cuba
- Behind-the-scenes access/events with dancers with Tom Gold Dance

The trip also includes OFAC license to Cuba, transportation from JFK Airport direct to/from Havana; guides, most meals, health care insurance (required by Cuban government) and private transportation. Aid and other supplies will be distributed to artists/art institutions in need.

Cost for Oct 28 – Nov 4 trip: $4,900 per person (single room); $4,700 per person (double room).

A portion of your trip is tax deductible. Space is very limited. A reservation deposit of 50% is due by August 15 with the remaining balance due September 15. For more information, contact Carlos Pomares directly at (973) 670-0691 or carlos@cubanartistsfund.org.

The Cuban Artists Fund, a 501c(3) non-profit organization, is committed to supporting artists of Cuban ancestry and providing the public with programs aimed at creating broader appreciation for Cuban arts and its global impact.
